CONTENTS.

INITIAL PAGES.

Frontispiece (with note as to portraits)

Officers and Committees ... iii
List of Members—Honorary, Life, Annual ... v
Constitution and By-Laws ... viii

PROCEEDINGS.

Minutes. (Giving all the events and transactions of the meeting in order of their occurrence, but omitting papers, discussions, reports, etc., which appear upon subsequent pages, under topical heads) ... 1
Address of Welcome and Response ... 6
President's Annual Address ... 8
Secretary's Annual Report ... 12
Treasurer's Annual Report ... 14
Executive Committee's Annual Report ... 15
Florida Freezes—The Greater and Lesser Freezes in Florida for a Century and a Half. (Paper.) 16
After the Great Freeze—The Orange Groves and How to Treat Them. (Paper.) ... 20
The Orange Groves of the West Coast—The Winter of 1894–'95 and Its Effects. (Paper.) ... 22
The Freezes of 1894–'95, and Their Effect on the Orange Industry. (Discussion.) ... 24
Resuscitating the Orange Groves—How the Frozen Trees Should be Treated. (Discussion.) ... 30
The Best Varieties of Oranges for General Planting. (Discussion.) ... 37
The Lessons of the Freeze—The Single or Divided Stem, Crown Grafting, etc. (Discussion.) ... 39
Comparative Hardiness of Different Citrus Stocks. (Discussion.) ... 41
Better Weather Warnings Wanted. (Discussion.) ... 44
Diseases and Insects of Citrus. (Paper.) ... 46
At the Sub-Tropical Laboratory—Some Results of the Year's Work in the Investigation of Plant Diseases. (Paper.) ... 47
Joint Meeting for 1896—Texas and Florida State Horticultural Societies. (Report.) ... 53
Legislative Appropriation. (Report.) ... 55
Legislation Against Fruit Pests. (Report.) ... 57
Tropical Plants on the East Coast. (Paper.) ... 57
Tropical Fruits—The Past, Present and Future of Tropical Fruit Culture in Florida. (Paper.) 59
The Plant Louse of the Melon, and Its Prevention. (Paper.) ... 63
Peach Culture on the West Florida Highlands. (Paper.) ... 66
Peaches and Plums in South Florida. (Papers.) ... 67
Pear Culture. (Paper.) ... 69
Pears and Apples. (Discussion.) ... 72
Notes on Grapes in West Florida. (Paper.) ... 74
The California Privet as an Ornamental Hedge Plant. (Paper.) ... 75
Ornamental Planting. (Paper.) ... 76
Azaleas and Palms. (Discussion.) ... 77
Our Native Fruits. (Paper.) ... 77
Fertilizers and Fertilizer Inspection. (Paper.) ... 78
Insects and Insecticides. (Paper.) ... 80
Irrigation. (Paper.) ... 85
Necrology. (Report.) ... 87
Resolutions of Thanks. (Report.) ... 88

CATALOGUE.

Note of Submittal ... II
Plan of Catalogue ... III
Explanation of Abbreviations ... IV
Citrus Fruits—Oranges, Pomelos, Lemons, Minor Citrus Fruits ... V
Deciduous Fruits - Peaches, Plums, Pears, Grapes, Kaki, Minor Deciduous Fruits, Nuts ... X
Miscellaneous Fruits—Strawberries, Minor Miscellaneous Fruits ... XVII
Tropical Fruits—Pineapples, Bananas, Guavas, Mangoes, Cocoanuts, Minor Tropical Fruits ... XVIII

CONTENTS.

INITIAL PAGES.

Frontispiece (with note as to portraits)

Officers and Committees ... iii
List of Members—Honorary, Life, Annual ... v
Constitution and By-Laws ... viii

PROCEEDINGS.

Minutes. (Giving all the events and transactions of the meeting in order of their occurrence, but omitting papers, discussions, reports, etc., which appear upon subsequent pages, under topical heads) ... 1
Address of Welcome and Response ... 6
President's Annual Address ... 8
Secretary's Annual Report ... 12
Treasurer's Annual Report ... 14
Executive Committee's Annual Report ... 15
Florida Freezes—The Greater and Lesser Freezes in Florida for a Century and a Half. (Paper.) 16
After the Great Freeze—The Orange Groves and How to Treat Them. (Paper.) ... 20
The Orange Groves of the West Coast—The Winter of 1894–'95 and Its Effects. (Paper.) ... 22
The Freezes of 1894–'95, and Their Effect on the Orange Industry. (Discussion.) ... 24
Resuscitating the Orange Groves—How the Frozen Trees Should be Treated. (Discussion.) ... 30
The Best Varieties of Oranges for General Planting. (Discussion.) ... 37
The Lessons of the Freeze—The Single or Divided Stem, Crown Grafting, etc. (Discussion.) ... 39
Comparative Hardiness of Different Citrus Stocks. (Discussion.) ... 41
Better Weather Warnings Wanted. (Discussion.) ... 44
Diseases and Insects of Citrus. (Paper.) ... 46
At the Sub-Tropical Laboratory—Some Results of the Year's Work in the Investigation of Plant Diseases. (Paper.) ... 47
Joint Meeting for 1896—Texas and Florida State Horticultural Societies. (Report.) ... 53
Legislative Appropriation. (Report.) ... 55
Legislation Against Fruit Pests. (Report.) ... 57
Tropical Plants on the East Coast. (Paper.) ... 57
Tropical Fruits—The Past, Present and Future of Tropical Fruit Culture in Florida. (Paper.) 59
The Plant Louse of the Melon, and Its Prevention. (Paper.) ... 63
Peach Culture on the West Florida Highlands. (Paper.) ... 66
Peaches and Plums in South Florida. (Papers.) ... 67
Pear Culture. (Paper.) ... 69
Pears and Apples. (Discussion.) ... 72
Notes on Grapes in West Florida. (Paper.) ... 74
The California Privet as an Ornamental Hedge Plant. (Paper.) ... 75
Ornamental Planting. (Paper.) ... 76
Azaleas and Palms. (Discussion.) ... 77
Our Native Fruits. (Paper.) ... 77
Fertilizers and Fertilizer Inspection. (Paper.) ... 78
Insects and Insecticides. (Paper.) ... 80
Irrigation. (Paper.) ... 85
Necrology. (Report.) ... 87
Resolutions of Thanks. (Report.) ... 88

CATALOGUE.

Note of Submittal ... II
Plan of Catalogue ... III
Explanation of Abbreviations ... IV
Citrus Fruits—Oranges, Pomelos, Lemons, Minor Citrus Fruits ... V
Deciduous Fruits - Peaches, Plums, Pears, Grapes, Kaki, Minor Deciduous Fruits, Nuts ... X
Miscellaneous Fruits—Strawberries, Minor Miscellaneous Fruits ... XVII
Tropical Fruits—Pineapples, Bananas, Guavas, Mangoes, Cocoanuts, Minor Tropical Fruits ... XVIII